

Computer-Reign (Game Over)

Ayreon

AYREON DESCRIBES A DISTANT FUTURE IN WHICH TECHNOLOGY TRIUMPHS OVER PASSION, AND 'SERVING' COMPUTERS WILL GRADYALLY GAIN CONTROL OVER MANKIN D.

I see a future cold as ice where all the love has gone I see a race that pays the price for everything it's done

I see shadows of giant machines cast upon the land
I see a world where kings nor queens but chips are in command

COMPUTER...COMPUTER...COMPUTER...
COMPUTER-REIGN

now the end has just begun technology has won and it cannot be undone
there will be nowhere to run now the damage has been done

GAME OVER! GAME OVER!

I see a game gone out of hand and memories erased
I see a programmed masterplan and man will be replaced

I see a planet die in space and slowly fade away
I see the end of the human race
there has to be a way
