

spirits-flying
I soar on the breeze
mortals-dying
I soar on the breeze
into the sun

lovers-crying
I soar on the breeze
demons-sighing
I soar on the breeze
into the sun

I'm drawn towards the sun and then we will be one my soul will melt into the universe

It's all a lie
you will just die
so don't give in
for we can win

I am the breeze
the bringer of rest and ease I am the wind
the forgiver of those who've sinned I am the storm
I blow the devil's horn I am the fire
the source of lust and desire I am the sun
the joining has begun
I am your fate
the guardian at the gate
I am death and I claim your final breath!
