

Fortune?

Ayreon

"The Prodigy faces his own dilemma: Should he do something he knows is wrong - and even risk losing the Girl - to get the drug? The very drug that made his life possible? Hoping that the Girl will understand, he agrees to help the Rival."

Our plan has succeeded
We are rich beyond belief
We got more than we ever needed
We're free to live out our dream

I won't be part of this nightmare
I cannot live with what you've done
Get out of my life

What have I done?
Now she's gone...
What have I done?
Now she's gone...
