

Irreplaceable

Ayria

If you asked me to stay with you I would
I'd stay with you
But I need you to not give up so fast
I know you're hurting
You've lost interest in everything I know
There's no joy anymore
There's nothing that I could say
To ease the pain that you're feeling

If you asked me to stay here - I would
Just please, don't go away
(I know you're hurting)
When this world gets too much and you want to go
There's no pleasure, just pain
(Just know you're irreplaceable)

You're irreplaceable

If you need me to talk you through this night
I'll be here for you
When it all seems too hard for you to bear
Alone and you're hurting
You've lost faith in everyone, everything
There's no joy anymore
Too much change, all the same, what's it all for?
I don't know how to unbreak you but...

If you asked me to stay here - I would
Just please, don't go away
(I know you're hurting)
When this world gets too much and you want to go
There's no pleasure, just pain
(You're irreplaceable)

Irreplaceable

Irreplaceable
Irreplaceable
Irreplaceable
If you need me
Irreplaceable
I will be here
Irreplaceable
If you need me
Irreplaceable
I will be here
Irreplaceable
If you need me
Irreplaceable
I will be here

I will be here
I will be here
