

Dogs

Aystar

Someone's dogs have been robbed, just got the call
Speaking in a foreign language, didn't understand him at all
Think he said his name was Raul
He's tryna say he wants his dogs back
But I don't even know what dog
Or whose even supposed to have robbed that
Is this guy talking 'bout weed or does he really mean dogs?
I think it was an Albo
It's looking like the lads have went bang and ran off with couple box
Dropped the phone and left it unlocked
Now this guy's ringing me 'cause I'm the last fucking call in the log
When it ain't got shit to do with me
I just phoned man to see where he was

It's not what it looks like but I know what it looks like
That wasn't us, them two kids on a pushbike
Bike doesn't even have pedal assist
You think we're rolling out on that? Don't take the piss
All the boys have got leccies, come through all stealthy
Black stealth bomber, the fast one
If you know then you know about that one
But look, I'll still try and find out where your packs have gone
Tryna phone man now to see who's got it
Told him, "If I get it back then we're splitting the profit"
He's tryna tell me that it's not profit
I told him, "It's all profit 'cause right now you haven't even got it"
Tryna phone man now to see who's got it
Told him, "If I get it back then we're splitting the profit"
He's tryna tell me that it's not profit
Told him that "It's all profit 'cause right now you haven't even got it"

It's not what it looks like
But seen as you're the plug right?
I think I wanna make a proposition
I might not be able to get your bud back
'Cause you know what the kids are like but look, listen
I buy off you, you sell to me
For a nice price and I'll make sure that you're nice
He offered five box and gave me a nice price
The dude was so stupid, had to jack a man twice
