oo ooooo

"But we only envied
Our neighbor's lives"
"And we lost sight of each other Being too near"

I see my own reflection in the mirror
And feel wretched and so irritated
But I can't rewind time
I miss you

I loved you painfully
I loved you irresistibly
Those summer days are far past
But I sing another song, wishing it reaches you

"By and by
We notice afterward"
"So we understood
In tears"

"Can I meet you again
Down the winding road?"
I dream a foolish dream like this
Miss you so bad

I loved you all day yesterday
I loved you all day today
I'll surely love you tomorrow
And I sing another song to you

With whom are you now?
And what expression are you showing?
I can't yet be used to the days
Without you
