It's true, isn't it? It seems as though
We're headed for a new century. It's miraculous
This is something you can only taste once
Let's remember one more time

On the day we arrived on this Earth
We were somehow happy
And somehow it hurt
We were crying
Wow yeah wow yeah wow wow yeah

Reality is a traitor; it's easy
To misjudge things. So with your own two eyes
Please decide the worth of this place
Do it with your own standards

We've arrived in these times
But somehow things move on
So somehow we're standing here
And we're living through today
Wow yeah wow yeah wow yeah

We've arrived on this kind of world
Somehow I'm very happy
Somehow it hurts a lot
While crying at the top of my lungs
Wow yeah wow yeah wow yeah

I've arrived in these times
But I met you

I've arrived in this kind of world
So I was able to meet you

On the day we arrived on this Earth
We were somehow happy
And somehow it hurt
We were crying
Wow yeah wow yeah wow wow yeah

We've arrived in these times
But somehow things move on
So somehow we're standing here
And we're living through today
Wow yeah wow yeah wow yeah
