We were seeking for freedom
Got hurt and did sinful things
My dear comrades
Who were so immature and awkward

I wonder if an adult with a child's mind
Should be called an adult
I cannot yet live cleverly

We're free to go anywhere we want
We're free to do anything we want
Against what and till when do I keep on fighting?

In this place
Where I feel stress even when breathing

I've come to be able to smile
Even when I feel no fun
I wonder if I have changed

We're free to go anywhere we want
We're free to do anything we want
Maybe I keep on fighting against freedom

We're free to go anywhere we want
We're free to do anything we want
Maybe I keep on fighting against freedom

When I felt the warmth of someone I passed by Tears welled in my eyes suddenly
It might be you, it might be the guy
Or the girl
