Even from this worthless me
When it's for your sake, somehow
A mysterious power just surges forth

Though I hold no special interests
When I'm with you, everything
Just shines with love

So stay with me more
Stay with me more
See me for myself
Stay with me more
Stay with me more
See me as who I am

Even in a world where I don't belong
As long as there's a space beside you
I don't care how cramped it is

So stay with me forever
Stay with me forever
Show me your real self
Stay with me forever
Stay with me forever
Stay as who you are

You speak of tomorrow and the day after, but
I always want to make today shine the brightest

Stay with me more
Stay with me more
See me for myself
Stay with me more
Stay with me more

See me as who I am

So stay with me forever

Stay with me forever

Show me your real self

Stay with me forever

Stay with me forever

Want us to stay as we are
