I open a new door into a place I don't know
Even if I close it I'm still myself, so
No matter what kind of place it is, I'll show you that I can survive
To have a once in a lifetime challenge

The past isn't something you compare to the present
But the future can't beat the present either

I've decided to zoom off when the next light turns green
It turns yellow, and stops at red. Am I ready for this?

I'm tired of hearing the noise around me
Even if only one person understands it's ok
Let's eat all the things we like, leaving none behind
And throw away the things we hate

It was fun. It's an old story, but Memories are always remembered in a good light, right?

I take a deep breath, my chest rises. I puff out my chest; I'm confident
Now I can say that I don't have time to stop. I have no time
