Say, what was it
That left such a deep wound in you?
Say, why is it
Your face betrays how much despair you've seen?

Ah, if only you would smile for me
I would give you everything

If it's what you wish
I could become a devil too

If it's what you wish
I would have no need of angels

For you...

If it's what you wish
I could become a devil too

If it's what you wish
I would have no need of angels

For you...
