Thank you from my heart
For all your loneliness, pain, guilt and love until now

You see? I couldn't say this clearly until now
Thank you for this life of mine

When I couldn't treat myself right that day
It was not me at all who was hurt

You have always behaved cheerfully
And I never forget the day when I saw tears on your profile for the first ti me

I met a person who said, "I love you and want to protect you"
We start to walk together now
Whatever sadness we may face, whatever gladness we may feel
We promised to live on, sharing every moment together
Please watch over me

You see? I'll be grateful for whatever will happen hereafter
Thank you forever

On some nights, I quarreled with you and shouted in tears
Or ran away from home

But I know you have always understood me
More than anyone else in the end

I feel that person you once met and loved
Is somehow like the person I love

I feel that person you once met and loved
Is somehow like the person I love
For example, his casual gestures somehow remind me of the image of that pers on
When I noticed that
A very warm single tear slid down my cheek

Thank you from my heart
For all your loneliness, pain, guilt and love until now
