The memories from that summer
Are still vivid even now
Always, when I remember them
Being with you is great

The memories from that summer
Are still vivid even now
Always, when I remember them
Being with you is great

On Friday nite, our eyes met
On Saturday, we got close
On Tuesday, we made it real
On Friday nite, it repeated

The memories from that summer
Are still vivid even now
Always, when I remember them
Being with you is great

We were in a dream, in love
And there, we really loved
I wanted to believe that it was fate

That summer, we went all out
Our suntanned skins pressed close
Even if we screamed or cried
Even so, we just wanted to reach the other
