

Bulletproof

AZ

You are an amazing work of art
Rare and priceless
God definitely broke the mold when he made you
Your presence leaves me in awe
I'm enamored by your style, your walk, your talk, your smile
I'm overwhelmed with emotions and consumed by the memories of your touch
Love is all over me and love on you is all I desire to be

Uh, salmon, salad, and white wine
A scented candle lit can put a chick in her right mind
Any chance I get I reminisce when that light shined
This since you were my miss, like the gift when I write rhymes
Exuberating, you leaving school had the Uber waiting
Illuminating like you open for communication, I tried it
Chinky eyes like Keke Wyatt
Peace and quiet for the vibes, like we speak in private
I whispered: "Is it really you or you Rihanna's sister?"
Smooth as arm and liquor, fly in her Gabbana slippers
Persona differs, but the blanks filled, in the same silks
You survive or you ain't built, Bonnie and Clyde
When I ride it's arm in arm with my bride
Baby boo it's all for you, all joking aside table for two
Dinner on the Riviera, it's pretty clearer
Seeing you is like seeing a mirror

I'll have you back for life
There ain't no sacrifice, I wouldn't make for you
Baby we're pulling through
I want you tonight, I'ma love you from night to sun up
Through winter, through fall, from spring to summer
Been through it all, but we made it through
Still standing tall 'cause we bulletproof

We get along, but we beef too
Bugging, singing songs when it's peaceful
Hate when you yell, wanna pull you by your ponytail
You know me well
Sunday mornings at the Chloe sale, letting you shop
Up the block the jeweler is setting your watch, it's nonstop
How we rock, they respecting your spot, never fronted
For you, always kept it a hundred
How you want it, on top, backside or your stomach?
Say the word, Chardonnay, nice white with some herb
We emerged from the bottom, now we out in the 'burbs
Bought to own it
Just think, all it took was a moment
Meet and greet, now we speak like a student enrolment

Bulletproof, bulletproof
Bullet, bullet, bullet
Bulletproof, bulletproof
Bulletproof, bulletproof
I'll have you back for life
There ain't no sacrifice, I wouldn't make for you
Baby we're bulletproof
I want you to know, I'ma love you from night to sun up
Through winter, through fall, from spring to summer

Been through it all, but we made it through
Still standing tall 'cause we bulletproof

The power of refinement, the hours align with
The synergy we design to define our environment
Never ominous, pure, went from the curse to the cure
It's the worst that made us mature
Your face I adored, the beauty, your mouth run more when you moody
Weightwatching while you pourin your smoothie, a ruby
Interrupt, my baby girl doobie it up
To speak truthfully, your truly enough
The movie is us, no edits
There's close ups, cuts, and credits
They said dead it, but we made 'em regret it, kinetic
In tune, listen, but never assume
You my life, love you here to the moon

Bulletproof, bulletproof
Bullet, bullet, bullet
Bulletproof, bulletproof
Bulletproof, bulletproof
I'll have you back for life
There ain't no sacrifice, I wouldn't make for you
Baby we're bulletproof
I want you to know, I'ma love you from night to sun up
Through winter, through fall, from spring to summer
Been through it all, but we made it through
Still standing tall 'cause we bulletproof
