

Don't Go Astray

AZ

Thank you, thank you
Y'all far too kind, too much love
Thank you, thank you

In '96, it was Pac hits, fast-foward now, just listen to LOX spit
No, a few industry niggas just not shit, man with bitch
Tend to see flipping they gossip, what's going on?
Younger chicks on my dick and they don't know a song
Attracted more to the glitz so I just go along
Love it, I be about it because it like Cali
When I'm rocking a stallard out in the public
Horses posted up in the driveway for Doily
In my office sitting plants, some shy there for Sucka Cam
Cross you and then they come at you sideways
The jewelers be cautious to call your compadres
Explain it simple, stress alone push strain on your mental
On the run'll make you change your credentials, what you into?
Rich niggas rocking and rolling, you say you holding Copping watches or you hopping on both ends

You gotta claim it if you wanna retain it, rich and famous
See yourself sitting up at arenas will make you changes
Nowadays, it could go either way
Let us pray, that the real ones don't go astray
You gotta claim it if you wanna retain it, rich and famous
See yourself sitting up at arenas will make you changes
Nowadays, it could go either way
Let us pray, that the real ones don't go astray

The realest in the circle of hills, I'm with the builders
My background come from gorillas and drug dealers
My rap sounds sprung from the appealers of hung niggas
Deaf, dumb and blind and they wonder if guns kill us
No feelers, been chosen, skin glowing on debt
Prostate check, cleanse colon, fallen from my side is forbidden
It's a given, self-driven under any condition, that's how I'm living
Perks don't work with the work play, who worthy?
You see what the say in them surveys, you Curry
Any emcee trying to be me, do 'em dirty
Shop the V sitting down in D.C. doing a thirty
It's deep when you rather unique, average psychique
Go on and fleet one way, other half is mystique
Some will talk it but they can't really walk it
Shit talk, only few transition to corporate

You gotta claim it if you wanna retain it, rich and famous
See yourself sitting up at arenas will make you changes
Nowadays, it could go either way
Let us pray, that the real ones don't go astray
You gotta claim it if you wanna retain it, rich and famous
See yourself sitting up at arenas will make you changes
Nowadays, it could go either way
Let us pray, that the real ones don't go astray

Get rich, get back
Get out the way
