Stay set, sequel in the making
Three sixty my beliefs in the Nation
D's frisk me, they peep reparations
With a real nigga aura, though I speak education
So explicit, mix it with quantum physics
Gifted with Don linguistics, sit and palm bitches
Palm biscuits, a youngin' was autistic
Omniscient, fly since the garment District
Eccentric, inflictin' with the proper diction
Compositions consist of no competition
Christened by my folks out in park slope
Cigar smoke, stay awake through Allah quotes
Cope with the crimes and the petty minds
Steady grind, let him rhyme, bet he shine
Bezzie time, VVS it 'cause it's naked
Expose the despot, can't respect it when he dyslexic
Epic, keep the soldiers and the suckers separate Perfected, don't speak on women that I slept with Check it, been ordained since my first chain
And my attribute substituted my birth name
Words exchanged, frequencies devised
Some'll prefer fame, others lead and guide
Decide, confessions of the lost lessons
And my possessions keep a stressing nigga guessing
Question to die greatest is the doctrine, why wake us?
Hi haters, I'm back off a hiatus...
