

Every star in the sky, every thought in my mind
Every tear in my eye fades away
I've got strength in my bones, I can do this on my own
Don't need your help at all, so let me stay right here

Sometimes, you gotta wake up
But I'm living in a dream and I'm feeling fine
Sometimes, we gotta break up
Yeah, I know it hurts, it'll be alright

'Cause, I've been beaten down by you
Six words and I woke up in my bed like it was nothing
Yeah, I woke up in my bed like you were never really there for me at all
I said I really wanna let you go, let you go
But our memories that we made are made of gold
So, if you tell me you're still missing me
What should I have done differently?
I wanna sleep forever, but, boy

Sometimes, you gotta wake up
But I'm living in a dream and I'm feeling fine
Sometimes, we gotta break up
Yeah, I know it hurts, it'll be alright

(Yeah, I know it hurts, it will be alright)

Sometimes, you gotta wake up
But I'm living in a dream and I'm feeling fine
Sometimes, we gotta break up
Yeah, I know it hurts, it'll be alright

Ayy-ayy-ayy-ayy-ayy
