Yeah, let's sing this song for the fallen ones
Let's do it right this time
I'mma be the one from the fallen ones
While I'm riding down this town
Yeah, it's time to bring it up girl, up girl, baby, this is your time
You know you're right
Oh my, oh, you look way better on my side
You know I'm right

And now I tryna pretend that I'm someone else
And now I tryna pretend that I'm awake
I was quite enough, but you went away
Now I got no reason to stay
Pretty dark is pretty too, I ain't got nothing else to say
Can't lift up your body to the skies unless you say my name
Sometimes I upgrade to a better me but I will never change
'Cause I got nothing to prove, yeah, I got nothing to...

Let's sing this song for the fallen ones
Let's do it right this time
I'mma be the one from the fallen ones
While I'm riding down this town
Yeah, it's time to bring it up girl, up girl, baby, this is your time
You know you're right
Oh my, oh, you look way better on my side
You know I'm right

Lemme tell you why I got a vibe when I see the skies
Feels like I just see the truth behind a hundred thousand lies
Lost my bed, lost my head, I lost everything I had
But I got you, pretty queen, and now I've lost you too, damn
Lost all my money, and all of you watchin'
I know I'm alright, but there's something went wrong
I trust nobody, bitch, no one can stop me
I've had enough so just leave me alone

Let's sing this song for the fallen ones
Let's do it right this time
I'mma be the one from the fallen ones
While I'm riding down this town
Yeah, it's time to bring it up girl, up girl, baby, this is your time
You know you're right
Oh my, oh, you look way better on my side
You know I'm right

I'm from Florida, moron
