Azahriah

I stand in your arms
Guide me from the secrets of this world
I got a fear from the unknown
One day I will leave earth
So good lord, take me home, while I'm Waiting impatiently to see
Everything we never knew
This the gateway in my mind
That's my only way to you

And heaven will be there
Just let me slip through these concrete walls
Or let me kill those lies
And now I'm truly yours
And I'm feelin' alive
Yeah I'm feelin' alright
Now I did not come all this way to lose
Maybe that voice in my head said the truth
What would I see, what would I be
When they bury my body, what would I feel
What does it mean if you let me?
What does it mean if you need me?
Why would I care if you leave me
I'm better alone

Just try to keep me under
Move me further
Let me lose myself
And then show me the truth
Try to make me wonder
Cause I can't take much longer
So make me feel like I'm something
Make me feel like I'm more

Sometimes we feel so empty inside
Like we're tryna win the fight, what we already won
Just let me in the dark, my love
Just keep you in the dark, by my side
But now I know it's true
You came right out of the blue
But the longer I'm with you
The crazier I feel
And now you know me too
Yeah I see it in your eyes
Seeing through what I demise
Seeing through what I've become
So better show me (My)
My only way to see (My)
I can't find peace
Yeah that's my only chance to seize your light
So never let me go

(My) My only way to see
(My) I can't find peace
(My) Yeah, that's my only chance to seize your light
