

Little did I know, when you first started to call me
Call me by my name and actin' like I was somebody
But you can't even blame me for the things that I've done in the past
When we argued a lot I was thinking about that I never wanted to be sad
That's who I am, don't know who you are
Who the fuck cares? You're just another one
There were times when there was a struggle to get over you
Blinded by the views I couldn't see the truth
Two graves but only one of us had to die today
I don't think I let you win, I just let my soul fly away
'Cause I got a lotta love but I don't wanna brag about it
'Cause the only one who loved me is gone, uh
And I could tell you 'bout the tunnel vision in my head
But now I know that I will never reach the stars
It's a pity, pretty shitty it's a messed up love
When I'm with you I think I'd rather be alone, bitch
And when I'm all alone I can't take a breath
Give us one more chance, I swear I'll do my best 'cause

(Swear I'll do my best)
'Cause baby, baby I need your love, every day
Reminisce, baby, the memories made me so numb
I need your love, every day, yuh
Carry the pain and the hate that you gave me I'm numb

(Baby, baby, I need your love)
Baby, baby, I need your love (need your love)
