

In the back of my head
I finally feel like I'm growing, I'm growing stronger now
It came to an end
I woke up and found out you were nothing but a lie
Whenever we fought
I hope you will hold my hand like you did it yesterday
Whenever we die
I hope you will always be, always be by my side

Yes, it's time to run away
Oh, too far away, I know that I need you now
But you wanted a better me
My own agony tells me to live right now
Yeah

It's a cold ending, ain't nobody know my name
Now they shouted from the roof tonight
I think I'm insane singing 'bout it everyday
But it never seems to kill my vibe
Ooh-ah

My vibe, my vibe

Yes, it's time to run away
Oh, too far away, andd I know that I need you now
You wanted a better me
My own agony tells me to live my life

It's a cold ending, ain't nobody know my name
So I shouted from the roof tonight
Well, I think I'm insane thinking 'bout it everyday
But it never seems to kill my vibe
