It's a perfect day to stay in my room
I wanna talk but I get scared of my own voice
(My own voice, my own voice, my own voice)
It's a perfect day to be alone
Better bother someone else
I got no choice
Humans are awful
And I know you know that, so you're not allowed to talk to me like that I need a big bag
I need my baby back, it's a perfect day to tell myself that I believe that
