

Sunday, I finally say goodbye
Monday, I reconnect my life
Tuesday, feels like I have some time
To roll up my problems and get high
Oh, and I finally get so high
You wait for me and my disguise
'Cause you find comfort in their lie
So, are you happy?
Tenno Heika Banzai
I'll be back in the biz' with a prose
I keep looking like I'm on both sides
So my sins and the power, they come alive
Can't hold 'em back

Take my soul just like you did yesterday
Take my soul just like you did yesterday
Take my soul just like you did yesterday
Take my soul just like you did yesterday

You did yesterday
You did yesterday

So, baby, please just hear me out
I gotta choose which way I turn
The only thing that's bringin' me down
Is the voice that will never be heard
I shoulda let it go, I shoulda kept it all
I got brand new deals, buy my mom a house
I got brand new demons, brand new clothes
And if you don't show me, then I cannot show ya
Hey ya, a liar will not get too close to me
That's your desire
You will fight for the life till you reach your destiny

We are not alone hoping for better days
Take my flow just like you did yesterday

You did yesterday
You did yesterday
