

Random Hook

Aziz Harun

As deep as the ocean
As high as a mountain
Never thought that we can be more than this
As soft as a cloud
And as tall as a tree
All I really need right now is your kiss

And I know this doesn't make sense but you should know
Everything I sing girl just goes to show
How cheesy I get when you're not next to me

Roses on roses and bouquets outside your doorstep picnics on beaches and we can watch as the sunsets down you and me stars in the sky baby we can see them shine together like you and I

Or we can explore the town
Take a trip to Paris
Go to the Eiffel Tower because that's so very Cliche and cheesy of me
Because because because because

As deep as the ocean
As high as a mountain
Never thought that we can be more than this
As soft as a cloud
And as tall as a tree
All I really need right now is your kiss

And I know this doesn't make sense but you should know
Everything I sing girl just goes to show
How cheesy I get when you're not next to me

They say time is like money
So we should spend it together
Cupcakes fill up our tummies
And we can lay as the sun goes around us
We can sing all the tunes and dance the night away with you and me
But I can't dance so I'll follow your lead

Or we can explore the town
Take a trip to Paris
Hold your hand real tight because that's so sweet of me
I'm sorry that this is a bit too cheesy
Because because because because

As deep as the ocean
As high as a mountain
Never thought that we can be more than this
As soft as a cloud
And as tall as a tree
All I really need right now is your kiss

And I know this doesn't make sense but you should know
