

Thank you, for ruining my life, yeah
Thank you, for ruining my life
Cos I thought we had a shot, but we really fucked it up
Now I know
I guess we know

It always starts so sweet like
Baby, you're the only one for me so
I changed my life's trajectory
You took the wheel and made all the decisions

If I only knew you would turn this car around the wrong way

Thank you, for ruining my life, yeah
Thank you, for ruining my life
Cos I thought we had a shot, but we really fucked it up
Now I know
I guess we know

You always text so late
Don't you ever go to bed?
You asked me to communicate, then you leave me up on read
I know you've had better guys so why not stick to them?
And leave me out of this, mess

Fly me to the moon cos I can't stand to see your face, so

Thank you, for ruining my life, yeah
Thank you, for ruining my life
Cos I thought we had a shot, but we really fucked it up
Now I know

You promised when you met me
That you'd change my life completely
This is not what I thought

Thank you, for ruining my life, yeah
Thank you, for ruining my life
Cos I thought we had a shot, but we really fucked it up
Now I know
I guess we know
