

Devastated

Aziz Hedra

Look up to the moonlight
By the side of city
I hope my wish comes true
I really hope it comes true

I want you here, I hope you're still here
Standing by my side, hmmm

I'd burn my mind
Just to erase anything behind
Burning all of my tattoos
I'll do anything to forget you

Forget you
Forget you

I don't wanna live in pain
But life without you is plain
You hurt me so good
I'd rather live with it

I want you here, I hope you're still here
Standing by my side

I'd burn my mind
Just to erase anything behind
Burning all of my tattoos
I'll do anything to forget you

Forget you
Forget you

I'm so devastated
You're my everything (You're my everything baby)
I won't find someone like you again
And now I just have to forget you

Forget you
Forget you

I'd burn my mind
Just to erase anything behind
Burning all of my tattoos
I'll do anything to forget you

Forget you
(I'd burn my mind, I'd burn my mind)
Forget you
(Just to erase anything behind)
Forget you
(Burning all of my tattoos)
Forget you
To forget you
