

Lesson Learned

Aziz Hedra

Some things have changed
Some things haven't been chased
Lowering expectations and overthinking
Facing different patterns in every age

Sometimes we can't make it all on time
I believe everyone has their own time
We will get through this

People can go, time may pass
But in our soul, they'll forever last
I can't lie
I can't lie
I won't lie

Errthings gonna be fine
Leave our fears behind
Keep holding on to hope
As we follow the road
Through the highs and lows
I've come to see
The lessons learned
