

Remember You

Aziz Hedra

I will remember you
I will remember you
I will always remember you

I'll remember you
And everything good that we've been through
Every single frame, every single hue
I'll remember you
I hope that you remember me too
And every little thing that we used to do

When the wheel keep spinning and we grow apart
Now we're living with a different spark
Promise me you'll always remember
Remember me
I'll remember you

Though we're separate miles away
Let the memories we've made, forever stay
Our bond remains, still there
Though time may pass and seasons change
And it goes fast, won't be the same
Little doubts
Breakin' hearts
But I'll stay

When the wheel keep spinning and we grow apart
Now we're living with a different spark
Promise me you'll always remember
Remember me
I'll remember you
I'll remember you
I'll remember you

I'll remember you
Even though we're grow apart
Living spark
Promise me you'll always remember me
Remember me

(I'll remember you)
Even though we're miles away
(I'll remember you)
But I'll stay
(I'll remember you)

I will always remember you
