

Over Again

Azizi Gibson

(Holy)

Ridin' in the coupe, just chillin' with my head back
My man got a play, but it sound like a death trap
I said, "Fuck it, call 'em up, we gon' see where they heads at"
We do this shit over and over again
We do this shit over and over again, it never ends
We do this shit over and over again
We do this shit over and over again, it never ends

Yeah, hop out the flight, head in the Benz
No, niggas ain't movin', I'm just gettin' head in this Benz
Uh, might as well fuck, 'cause I know none of 'em friends
You'll dip as soon as I run out of all of my ends
One man can't have all of these things to himself
Call up my mans, right now your boy need help
OnlyFans, IG hoes top-shelf
You'll be the next buckle on my belt

Ridin' in the coupe, just chillin' with my head back
My man got a play, but it sound like a death trap
I said, "Fuck it, call 'em up, we gon' see where they heads at"
Ayy, ayy, ayy, uh
We do this shit over and over again
We do this shit over and over again, and it never ends
We do this shit over and over again
We do this shit over and over again, and it never ends

It never ends, know if I started, then I gotta finish
I'm on the road, missing your touch like where have you been?
Shawty like Allstate, she got my back if I get in a jam
She do not ball play, but she be with me when I hit the gym
When the roof fall off, she don't say no
Fuck what they talkin' 'bout, what do they know?
If they ain't been around since a day old
Know they say nobody perfect, well then change shit
I done been around the world, seen the same chicks
Make a nigga wild out 'cause they ain't shit
But to me a lil' different, had to claim it, psych
Player for life, always one on the side
Way too much flavors, might go on a diet
She not my main, but she know to keep quiet
Blow out her frame, that shit sound like a riot
I cannot save her, I know I sound biased
Stoned like Goliath, I swear we the highest
Soon as I hit, cuttin' off her supply
Send her back home, know I got me a wife
