

To This Life

Azure Ray

Oh, you share the secret you could not live with
But my mind's eye, it will outlive my forgiveness
It's still alive in my mind
Searching for redemption on a bed of lies
Show respect, some sense of tribute to a higher sign
Or turn a blind eye

It's still alive in my mind
Step outside, these weeping clouds are breaking up
Beating down, it pours like sound from a golden cup
Hand me this lot
I'll give it all I've got
All it brings
I'll give everything
To this life
