Stronger

Azure Ryder

When a ghost came knockin' at my door
I was in a strange place on my cold floor
And I was holdin' on to love that I never really know
Misplaced and separated, I gave my name to you

Don't feel cold since I gave you up
Thanks to you, now I've got thicker blood
I'm alone, but I don't need your love
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was

You ran away with my wings, so I was left to crawl
Came like a river at your feet while I was taken at the shore
So I'm not gonna keep you high up, been feedin' off my touch
It's too late to hesitate in the dark set over us

Don't feel cold since I gave you up
Thanks to you, now I've got thicker blood
I'm alone, but I don't need your love
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was

Sew my heart back in my chest
I'm on my way like I never left
There's nothing left to steal
Through every break you wouldn't bend
You saved yourself, now you won't see red
You'll never know how love feels

Don't feel cold since I gave you up
Thanks to you, now I've got thicker blood
I'm alone, but I don't need your love
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
Guess I'm stronger than you thought I was
