

Just Can't Please You

B.B. King

Hey, little girl, baby, what's wrong with you?
I've done everything I knew to do
I've tried so hard, I tried, sorry, just can't please you

Hey, little girl, I've given you all that you need
And I've been a good man, a good man indeed
I've tried so hard, you misuse me
But I tried, sorry, just can't please you

I brought you happiness when you were mad
I even made you smile when you are sad
Leaving you, baby, may make you mad
But you will soon realize what a good man you have

Hey, little girl, honey, what's wrong with you?
I say I've done everything for you, baby, I know to do
I've tried so hard, you misuse me, sorry, just can't please you

Hey, I brought you happiness when you were sad
I even made you smile, baby, when you were mad
Leaving you, baby, may make you mad
But you'll soon find out what a good man you have

Little girl, baby what's wrong with you?
Hey, I've done everything for you, everything I knew to do
I've tried so hard, you misuse me
But I tried, sorry, just can't please you

Gave you everything mink coats
Even bought you a brand new home
Everything a full man can do for you
You know I've done it, baby

Can you hear me?
Worked hard everyday
Still can't feed you, baby
