

More, More, More

B.B. King

When I was eighteen years old
Broke down and you know I cried
I said I was true with one woman
But you know I think I lied
'Cause I take all I can get
But you know I'm never never satisfied
I just won't more more more
I want more more more
I said it then more more more
I want more more more
You know enough
Enough is just not enough
Hey I want more

Now I woke up this morning
I was an old well my baby used to be
Said she new all about my other women
Because she had been checking up on me
Well you know that's just the way I am
And I think that's the way I'll gone with me
I just won't more more more
I want more more more
I said it then more more more
I want more more more
You know enough
Enough is just not enough
Hey I just want more

Yes I want more hmmm
I can't help it
I want more
I want more
Can you bring me to a three bar
More more more
I said I want more more more
Can you tell them have more
More more more
I said I want more more more
I just wanna have more more more
I just found it wanna do more more more
I just want more more more
I want more more more
I may have just not enough
More more more
I want more more more
I just gonna have more more more
I wanna more more more
More more
I said I want
I'm gonna have more more more
I want more more
