

Night Long

B.B. King

Yes, the nights are so long, baby
And the days are so blue
Seems like everything has gone wrong
Baby cause Im without you
I guess this is that awful feeling
Baby, that feeling they call the blues
All by myself, baby
Yes, I began to weep
Yes, and when I dry my eyes, baby
You know I still can't sleep
Yes, I guess this is the feeling
Baby, the feeling they call the blues
Yes, as I sit here in my dark room, woman

With the tears running down my face
Yes, as I sit here in my dark room, woman
With the tears running down my face
Yes, I can feel and I can see you, woman
I can see you all over the place
Yes, then I start walkin, woman
Start walkin all over the floor
Yes, my heart is telling me, woman
Tellin me you won't be here no more
Oh, I guess this is the feeling
Baby, the feeling, the feeling they call the blues
