There Must Be A Better World Somewhere

Sometimes I wonder Just what am I fighting for? I win some battles But I always lose the war I keep right on stumblin' In this no-man's land out here But I know Mmmmm yes, I know There must be a better world somewhere Flying high Some joker clips my wings Just because he gets a kick Out of doing those kind of things I keep on fallin' in space Or just hangin' in mid-air

But I know Ohh yes, I know There has just got to be a better world somewhere

Every woman I want Only wants herself Everybody I love Seems to love somebody else And every woman Got a license to break my heart And every love, oh it's over Over before it gets a chance to start

If it ain't dead Maybe in the here after Instead of tears I'll learn all about laughter But meanwhile I'm stuck out here

It just ain't fair, but I know I said I know Oh yes, I know There must be a better world somewhere There's just gotta be Gotta be a better world somewhere B.B. King
