

Aloha

B.J. Thomas

Ships upon the ocean
That sail around the world
Take me
Deliver me
Let me be in motion
Take me around the world
Wake me
Take me where the South Sea breeze is low
Take me to a place where palm trees grow
Aloha

People say that fortune
Is not for you to find
You make it
Deliver me
Offer me a ticket to leave it all behind
I'll take it
Save me from my opportunities
Let me live a life of sunny sea
Aloha

Below the horizon
That's where the sunrise starts
Aloha means "goodbye" - "hello"
Welcome to lonely hearts

Below the horizon
That's where my poor heart lies
Aloha means "goodbye" - "hello"
Welcome to sunny skies

So if there's a ship for dreamers
If there's a ship for fools
Take me
Deliver me
Let me see the ladies standing in the pool
Naked (naked in the sea)
Let me hear the youth, Palolo Bay
Let me hear the South Sea winds say:
Aloha
