

Be Honest

B.J. Thomas

Be honest, is this where you want to be?
Be honest, are you still in love with me?
Look deep in your heart
Then tell me what you see
Be honest, be honest with me

Oh Darlin', are you tryin' to say goodbye?
Just say it, even if I start to cry
I'd rather hear the truth
Though the truth might set you free
Be honest, be honest with me

When I ask what's wrong, you say nothin'
Is there somethin' you're afraid of tellin' me?
But even if it hurts, it won't be any worse
Than this silence, that's slowly killin' me

Sit by me, tell me all your fears and doubts
Oh babe, we can try and work them out
I won't ask you to be, something you can't be
Be honest, be honest with me

I'd rather hear the truth
Though the truth might set you free
Just be honest, be honest with me
Be honest, be honest
With me
