

Human

B.J. Thomas

Oh Lord
Why did you make me human
I've got to laugh
I've got to cry
I've got to live
And I've got to die

And Oh Lord
Why did you make me human
I've got the best girl in the world
But make her understand
That I'm only a man

You mend
When I make the tears fall from her eyes
Forgive me for I apologize
Oh and when I make I break her heart
And tear it all apart
Forgive me
I'm only human

And oh Lord
Why did you make me human
I've got to work everyday
So little love and so little pay
And I'm just human
I'm just human
