

I Don't Know Any Better

B.J. Thomas

I oughta be loving somebody else
But I don't know any better
I just don't know any better
You hurt me so baby
Still I won't go
'Cause I don't know any better
I just don't know any better

I oughta be away from you
Leaving a goodbye letter
But when you say I need you stay
I don't know any better
You keep on lying to me
Baby, 'bout what I mean to you

You love and leave and come back
Knowing what I'll do
I'll never be loving somebody else
'Cause I don't know any better
I just don't know any better
You hurt me so baby
Still I won't go

'Cause I don't know any better
I just don't know any better
So come on now and take my love
I'll never love another
I'll never be through loving you
'Cause I don't know any better
'Cause I don't know any better
Than you
