

I Really Got The Feeling

B.J. Thomas

I really got the feeling that I'll love you for a long long time
I felt it from the moment we met you didn't ask me my sign
You love your daddy but it really don't matter what your daddy
might say
I really got the feeling that I'll love you 'til my dying day

You're a gentle girl
And a gentle girl is getting mighty hard to find these days
I'm a tender man
And I'm man enough to show my love and tender ways

I really got the feeling that I'll love you for a long long time
You love your daddy but it really don't matter what your daddy
might say
I really got the feeling that I'll love you 'til my dying day

I love those silly things you do
You make me feel once more like an innocent child of two

I really got the feeling that I'll love you for a long long time
You love your daddy but it really don't matter what your daddy
might say
I really got the feeling that I'll love you 'til my dying day

Really got the feeling got the feeling
Really got the feeling got the feeling
I really got the feeling that I'll love you 'til my dying day
