

I Won't Let You Down

B.J. Thomas

I may not be a rich man
I may not be that wise
If you expect a hero
You're in for a surprise
But if you're hoping I will love you
Everyday this world spins 'round
Then I won't let you down
No I won't let you down

Don't look for an actor
With all his lines prepared
'Cause if I were an actor
I'd never act this scared
But if you're hoping for a helper
To lift you off the ground
Then I won't let you down
No I won't let you down

Everything you wanted
May not be everything you'll see
But I'll hold on to you
If you'll just hold on to me

We may not have a palace
Fifteen years from now
For all the things that might be
Only this I'll vow
If the phrase I love you
Is your very favorite sound
Then I won't let you down
No I won't let you down

I won't let you down
No I won't let you down
