

Man To Conquer All

B.J. Thomas

If there's something I can do
To prove the way I feel for you
I will, oh you know I will
Chase the dark clouds from your skies
Dry the teardrops in your eyes
I will, oh you know I will

For I'm the man you can lean on
I'll be here and I'll be strong for you
Yes it's true, I'll do it all for you

I'll be your back fielder
I'll be your big wheeler
I'll always stand up straight and tall
I'll be your best friend
My love will have no end
For you I'll be the man to conquer all

If there's something I can say
To make you feel the way I'll do
Then you know I'll will

Build the castles in your eyes
Make your dreams materialize
I will, oh you know I will

And I keep you were is safe and warm
Ride you right up in my arms around you
Yes it's true
I'll do it all for you

I'll be your back fielder
I'll be your big wheeler
Winter, summer, spring and fall, well...
I'll be your best friend
My love will have no end
For you I'll be the man to conquer all

I only know that if your love was mine
There would be no mountains
That I couldn't climb

(I'll be your back fielder) oh
(I'll be your big wheeler) oh
I'll always stand up straight and tall, well
I'll be your best friend
My love will have no end
For you I'll be the man to conquer all, well...

I'll be your back fielder
I'll be your big wheeler
I'll always stand up straight and tall, well
I'll be your best friend
My love will have no end
For you I'll be the man to conquer all
