

Never Tell

B.J. Thomas

Never tell, never tell, never tell, never tell
The little girl you love her
Sweet talk, sweet talk, sweet talk, sweet talk
Is something you should spare

I know, yes I know, I know
It seems unfair
But if you let her know you care
Then the challenge won't be there

And she'll be blue, feeling blue
Wondering what in the world
Did I do to you

If you are really in love
Then consider it a blessing
Don't spoil it by confessing
I've learned my lesson
Keep 'em guessing

Oh, oh
I know it won't be easy
But wait a little while
Until you walk her down the aisle
That's it keep your style
Don't be tempted by her smile
Wait till she says I do
I love you

But till then
Never tell, never tell, never tell, never tell
The little girl you love her
Sweet talk, sweet talk, sweet talk, sweet talk
Is something you should spare

I know, yes I know, I know
It seems unfair
But if you let her know you care
Then the challenge won't be there

And she'll be blue, feeling blue
Wondering what in the world
Did I do to you

And she'll be blue, feeling blue
Wondering what in the world
Did I do to you

And she'll be blue, feeling blue
Wondering what in the world
Did I do to you

And she'll be blue, feeling blue
Wondering what in the world
Did I do to you
