

Plastic Words

B.J. Thomas

I used to say things I didn't really mean
Without thinking about the harm that it would bring
But I found out in time
And in case you haven't heard
Love just can't be built on plastic words

Plastic words
Let's put them out of use for goodness sake
Plastic words
Like plastic toys that both of them will break

Don't say you do, oh, when you don't (Don't say you do, when you don't)
Don't say you will, honey, when you won't
(When you won't, when you won't, when you won't)
It only leads to heartache
'Cause just like plastic toys
Plastic words will also break

Love is a story
And I just found my part
All my lines are written on my heart
So my love can believe
What I whisper in her ear
And plastic words are words she'll never hear

Plastic words
Let's put them out of use for goodness sake
Plastic words
Like plastic toys that both of them will break

Don't say you do, oh, when you don't
(Don't say you do, when you don't)
Don't say you will, honey, when you won't
(When you won't, when you won't, when you won't)
It only leads to heartache
'Cause just like plastic toys
Plastic words will also break

And just like plastic toys
Plastic words will also break

"I love you, daddy!"
