

Shining

B.J. Thomas

No one knew my name
Everyday the same
Oh so lonely
I prayed the time would come
When I'd be someone's
One and only
I found you
Made me feel brand new

Now I'm shining
Like the brightest morning sunlight
Shining
Brighter than the moon at midnight
Shining
If every single star fell from the skies
I'd be OK
'Cause I know I'd be shining in your eyes

We're all diamonds in the rough
Till someone cares enough
To love you
To take an empty heart
Make the feelings start
To be part of you
It feels so great
You were worth the wait

Now I'm shining
Like the brightest morning sunlight
Shining
Brighter than the moon at midnight
Shining
If every single star fell from the skies
I'd be OK
'Cause I know I'd be shining in your eyes

Oh oh
Shining
Like the brightest morning sunlight
Shining
Brighter than the moon at midnight
Shining
If every single star fell from the skies
I'd be OK
'Cause I know I'd be shining in your eyes
