

Superman

B.J. Thomas

Wish I was the Superman
Stoppin' trains and makin' diamonds in my hands
A big reporter man
I'd write all the news today
And it would say
Up, up, baby and away

'Cause I got fire in my head
And my feet they wanna dance
But I ain't got a chance
If I'm gonna have to wait forever
Well it might as well be never
Don't have a chance, no
I said I don't have a chance

Well, well, it's the underdog
And every door leads right back to the fog
You know baby, I don't wanna win 'em all
I just wanna win this one, that's all

Hey, hey 'cause I've got a fire in my head
And my feet they wanna dance
But I ain't got a chance
If I'm gonna have to wait forever
Well it might as well be never
I don't have a chance, no
I said I don't have a chance
No, no I don't have a chance

No, no 'cause I've got a fire in my head
Am I gonna have to wait forever
Well it might as well be never
I don't have a chance, no
I don't have a chance
