

You

B.J. Thomas

You

You're the reason for all my tunes
You're the joy when I'm feelin' blue
You're the essence of all that's good in me

Oh you

You're the healer of all my fear
You're my friend when I need an ear
You're the hopin' part of the hope in me

Oooh oooh

Somebody said you were just a state of mind
But if you're just a dream tell me who gave me all this love

Oh you

You're the reason the flowers bloom
You're the light for an August moon
You're the one all nature listens to
If there's hope for us all
Then I know that it's wonderful you

Oh you

You're the reason for all that's true
You're my help in the things I do
You're the one to give the glory to
If there's hope for us all
Then I know that it's wonderful you

It's you

One and only you
It's you
Jesus it is you

One and only you
It's just you
Jesus it is you
