

Marvelous

B. Lou

Aye, aye, aye, aye ain't that pro'lly Tago
So much pain in my heart
TreOnTheBeat
Ooo-woah

I don't know where to start
I got so much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
So much pain in my heart
I don't know where to start
Feel like I'm lost but I'm found
Depression deep inside of me
Just searchin' for the way out
So much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
So much pain in my heart

I just wanna take all the pain away (Take all the pain away)
I'm cryin' out for help, nobody care what I say (Care what I say)
I'm stuck inside a maze, thing only I know is pray (All I know is pray)
So much pain in my heart
These feelin's never gon' change (They never gon' change)
I just wanna be here for ya
I want loyalty, I want honor
You my lil' baby, we fuck with no condom
When you with' me you all in designer
I know you gon' ride 'cause you built like no other
Call you my wife, we was meant for each other
When I'm withchu we don't feel like no other
Count up the money, you know how we lovin', hah

I don't know where to start
I got so much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
So much pain in my heart
I don't know where to start
Feel like I'm lost but I'm found
Depression deep inside of me
Just searchin' for the way out
So much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
So much pain in my heart

God is my witness, I done seen some niggas turn to bitches
And why you pillow talkin' homie? You just want some kitty
Out of 4 L's, loyalty is never questioned
Quit lookin' out the window when we all got different visions
And they gave my brother ten and I ain't seen him in a minute
And every time we talk he say he pop out on the spinach
That's why you got one mouth and two ears, just for to listen
And I'ma be real, fuck you and keep your distance, hah

I don't know where to start
I got so much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
So much pain in my heart
I don't know where to start
Feel like I'm lost but I'm found
Depression deep inside of me
Just searchin' for the way out
So much pain in my heart (Oh-woah)
