

Already There

B.o.B

Don't be afraid, when I die, because..

I'm already gone (already gone) I'm already way way way up there

I'm already gone (I'm already gone) I'm already gone as I'm way up there

I'm all alone (lone lone lone..) I'm all alone (lone lone lone..)

I'm all alone (lone lone lone..)

I'm all alone as I'm way up there

I'm already gone

I think I need to have somebody come and tell me

I'm not as crazy, as much as I may be (may be?)

Maybe, things were better when I was just a baby (baby?)

Cause baby, ha

Ignorance is bliss, the older I get, I guess I get too curious

Lookin on the internet for interestin shit that's just way too serious

Somewhere along the way

I done went way too far in space

And I guess cain't nobody see me here, cause I'm too far away

I said, somewhere along the way

I done went way too far in space

And I guess cain't nobody see me here, cause I'm too far away

Some people don't ask why (nah)

But - I ask why, I ask why (why?)

And half the time I try to act right

So, I don't catch a bad vibe (nah)

Up in the sky like an aeroplane (pyoom)

But no I ain't talkin 'bout mary jane (nah)

And yes, there's only a few people that know what I mean when I say I'm everythang (ha!)
