B.o.B

Classic dystopian play
The public gets played
The red white and blue is
Hearing aide beige
A Netflix special
Followed by some outrage

Hardcore
Now ya vegan
Now your straws cardboard
Damn that didn't save the world
Back to the drawing board
Pandemic
Start a war
Stars galore
Streaming farms
Got you feel like you ain't working hard enough

They sell hope to the most vulnerable
Dope to the ungovernable
Painkillers rule
Life is too uncomfortable
The Orwellian future
Right here in front of you

There's no amount of poverty
No amount of wealth
That can fix ya mental health
Ya fix that shit yaself
Niggas be oppressed
But nigga lazy as hell
Niggas be oppressed
So nigga crazy as hell

We do it ourselves
We do it to cells
We do it to our body
Our words be casting spells
They locked up in them cells
You give away it all
Ain't nothing for yaself
You give it all away

Shit! Hold sum'n bitch
You do t know me
You just know my trauma
That don't mean you know me
I don't wanna be famous
Fuck the old me

Won't find me without a joint
How many rappers you know
Study counterpoint
My nigga Kyle Who
Hit you wit the PowerPoint
Never been a coward

Not once ever

They used to sell kids
And they still do Adrenochrome
On tap like Mountain Dew
No this is not fear mongering
This is idea honoring
See the world in astonishment
Still my goals I accomplish em

Can't no one tell me
What's finna happen to me
It's whatever I program my destiny to be
How you gon change the HTML code you can't read
And no hiding in no bunker
What you sew you shall reap

Bitch!

Anything I ever spoke about
You can check the records bro
Source information
I can show you the books
I can show you where it came from
And if a nigga ain't willing to say that
He's a wordsmith he's a con
I love you all
Salutations
